Dear Pedram Mortazavi,

It is also the same with this one.

Please consult:

<http://nrcresearchpress.com/page/authors/services/reprints>, specifically:

"Anyone may reuse figures, tables, and short excerpts from any NRC Research Press article, for any purpose that respects the moral rights of authors, at no charge and without permission. However, if a license is required, one can be obtained for free by following the instructions below. In either case, the original publication should be acknowledged with a credit line that includes the author, article title, journal title, volume number, issue number, and the inclusive pages. The credit line must also include the wording "© Canadian Science Publishing or its licensors."

Permission is granted.

Thank you for checking.

Regards,

Eileen Evans-Nantais
